Women's Service

Women have had a noteworthy position throughout scripture. Although Adam was created first, and Eve came out of Adam, there would be no human race without Eve, she was the mother of all living, (Genesis 3:20), the rest of humanity came out of her.

And although genealogy and inheritance was passed by the father, or husband to sons, Matthew does give mention of four women of prominence in Christ's genealogy: Rahab, Ruth, Bathsheba (not by name) and Mary (Matt. 1:5-6,16). God called Deborah to be a prophetess and judge (Judges 4:4) and has dedicated two books of the Bible to women, Ruth and Esther both of which we will study today.

This is just a small sampling of the women of the Bible. Women played an important role throughout history, what we hope to accomplish today is to show how we can learn from their stories, see how their faith sustained them through trials and tribulations, and how God used them for His eternal purpose.

Speakers

Barb Dryer

Barb married David in 1981, and they were married for 38 and 1/2 years. She is a grateful mom of 3 and a Nana of 10. Barb attends Graceway Bible Church. Barb accepted the Lord's salvation in 1983. She is thankful for God's Love and Grace that allows her to learn and understand who she is in Him and the role she plays in the body of Christ every day: a light, a witness, and ambassador.

Jeanette Metcalf

Jeanette lives in Titusville and attends Graceway Bible Church of Edgewater, Florida. She is a grateful mother of four children and five grandchildren. Saved by grace through faith in the finished work of Christ, she delights in edifying the Body of Christ.

Cheryl Roeser

Cheryl has been married to Bruce since 1985 and is a mom of two adult women, mother-in-law, and grandmother. She came to know her need for a savior in 1984 and trusted in Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. After spending some time wandering in denominationalism, she learned about grace in 1999 and has been learning about the unsearchable riches ever since! She lives in DeLand, Florida and attends Graceway Bible Church.

Sue Fitzpatrick

Sue has been married to George since 1977 and has two sons and six grandchildren. They did not know the Lord when they were first married, but came to know Him within a few months of each other in 1979. Their first Church was Preakness Bible Church in Wayne, NJ, which is a Grace Church; they were fortunate to come to know right division from the beginning. They are happy to be members of Fellowship Bible Church and to be able to worship and serve here.
